

Comparative Government II.

The main aim of offering course titled "Comparative Government II." is to provide basic information about main grounds of political system of the United States and the Great Britain and Northern Ireland. Students are entitled to gain essential knowledge about horizontal division of powers and its application at system of US government with special consideration at system of checks and balances. Structure of government, mutual relations among various branches of power, system of election and structure of political parties are main topics on the ground of we would like to introduce elemental character of selected political systems. Successful completion of the course requires inclusion of all above mentioned topics at appropriate level of knowledge.