

Bezpečnostná politika SR

Security Policy of the Slovak Republic

Course Security Policy of the Slovak Republic will provide students with basic knowledge of security policy of the state. The lectures will familiarize students with internal and international standing of the Slovak Republic in terms of its security situation, with an analysis of the security environment, security policy, security system, and defense system of the state, crisis management and comparison with security strategies of others V4 countries.